

Your Natural Hair Expert Jacqueline Tarrant

Jacqueline Tarrant is recognized as a beauty expert in her role as consultant, columnist, Certified Trichologist and founder of the Natural Hair Bar and the Hair Trauma Center in downtown Chicago. The foundation of her pearls of wisdom stem from a family legacy of three generations of beauty professionals and her well-traveled career as an International Platform Artist. The former Director of Education and Product Development Specialist worked at SoftSheen-Carson, a division of L'Oréal USA for eight years. Her expertise has been expressed monthly in national columns that reach millions through various publications including Seventeen, Cosmopolitan, Essence, the Wall Street Journal, and Huffington Post. Jacqueline's Hair Advice has been dispatched to women worldwide based on their questions sent to Sophisticate's Black Hair Magazine over the last eight years. Numerous Style & Beauty appearances nationwide on Good Morning America, NBC, CBS, & the Fox Network have kept her up close and personal with the latest hair care must haves.

During the week you can find Jacqueline at her Michigan Ave. location where clients keep her busy re-growing their hair while giving them the natural styles they crave. Her use of Trichology to identify the cause and proper treatment of hair loss combined with the growth stimulating technology of Cool Light Laser is one of the most requested services that delivers results.

In an effort to share her expertise with a broader audience, Jacqueline poured her tips into the health and beauty publication, "Healthy Hair Rehab Now!" This insider's guide empowers the reader with the knowledge to identify key tips for the best hair at any age. "Healthy Hair Rehab Now" takes an informative look at what causes hair loss and provides the reader with actionable solutions. "Every Strand Matters" has been Jacqueline's motto since the start of her career and it is still true.

