

More about this Episode

Meet Melisa: Melisa Alaba is the founder and CEO of Eliza Mary Global Network (EMGN)

A global organization that connects, educates and advocates for women of color in business. Melisa has helped thousands of women entrepreneurs discover their purpose and rock their business and life for over 15 years. Melisa is dedicated to coaching women into personal freedom by identifying their life's work, growing profits and living a life that they love. Melisa is a strong advocate for women's rights, economic empowerment for women and philanthropist. Melisa Alaba is also a writer, mentor and speaker. Melisa earned her bachelor and Master's degree, in psychology from Roosevelt University . Melisa also offers transformational talks at corporate events, on college campuses, empowerment events and in community forums. Learn more about Melisa and the Eliza Mary Global Network at www.emgnlife.com