

More about this Episode

About Kim's guest co-host: Suellen Roberts is the Founder and President of Christian Women in Media. A seasoned professional with almost two decades of experience in the field of communications, she has a background as a television producer with three nationally syndicated shows, as a TV station GM, and as Sr. V.P. of a broadcasting corporation. Suellen is known for her national television appearances her relevance as a keynote speaker and educator. In addition she oversees all areas of Christian Women in Media, Suellen resides in Dallas with her retired husband Jimmy, the former personal assistant to Billy Graham.