Meet DeYonne:

After being violently attacked with a 6-inch butcher knife by her sister's abuser, DeYonne Parker began to live a life full of fear and brokenness. From this incident, she lost her true identity and began to live an inauthentic life. After years of living this way, she decided to stop fakin', foolin' and frontin' and come from behind her mask of fear. With God's amazing grace and power, she rebuilt her life and now passionately shares her message to motivate the masses. She has spent over 20 years of her life pouring into the lives of ladies, leaders and little girls to help them rebuild, regain and reclaim the life. She was born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska where she received her Bachelors of Science Degree in Human Resource Management from Bellevue University.
